

Crawl Engine

The crawl engine consists of three endpoints in AWS API Gateway one to start crawls, one to retrieve crawl results and one to upload arbitrary scripts for crawls. Users can start crawls with a list of urls and the name of a javascript file previously uploaded. All requests will be authenticated using jwt's and a user can only access his own artifacts(scripts and results)

